THE RAYMOND LION

The big social event of the year for any Lions Club is its annual party to celebrate its Charter Grant. The Raymond Club held its twelfth Charter Night last Saturday in the Opera House. There was a new note to this party in several respects. First, it is the first one ever held on a Saturday night. Our regular meetings are held on the first and third Mondays of each month and it has been our custom to hold Charter Nights on a Monday night. Secondly, it is the first time that we have ever opened the dance to the public. We think that it was a worthy trial on both counts. Our visitors complimented us on holding it on a night when they could enjoy themselves without worrying about getting to work the next morning. Everybody seemed to think that the dance was a decided success.

The party started off with a very delicious banquet prepared by the First Ward Mutual Association. One hundred and twenty plates were served in record time and with remarkable efficiency. Lucille, our regular caterer, was the organizer—if you want it done right, visit the Lions and see how she works. Melvin King, Master of Ceremonies, carried the program along with dispatch. He started off by appointing Karl Wilde and Frank Leavitt as Tail Twisters—we were never quite safe and never bored—these two live wires kept us squirming and laughing the whole evening. J. O. A. Stevenson led the group in several very lively songs. Jeanine Jensen sang two very lovely numbers—she is the unofficial singing Lioness. I don't think she has missed a Raymond Charter night in all this time. Three lovely Welling girls gave us a vocal trio—nice to listen to and good to look at. Our own Lion, Mas Tarkada sang two songs—very much appreciated, by the noise the crowd made to get him back. The District Governor, Ken Long of Cardston came late and had to sing for his supper. Ken always does a beautiful job. The guest speaker of the evening was that same District Governor. He reviewed the Lion's slogan from the letters in our name: L. iberty, I. ntelligence, O. ur N. ations, S. afety. His text then developed from the latter "Our Nations Safety"—the theme at the International Convention in Chicago last summer. His subject was well handled and very timely. The audience was well pleased with his message and expressed their appreciation. At the conclusion of his talk, Rulon Dahl, our first Club President in 1940, presented the speaker with a very beautiful Lion made by Mrs. Phoebe Evans and Jack Evans. Mrs. Long received a Vanity Set. At about ten o'clock the program was concluded and the remainder of the evening was spent in getting acquainted and renewing old friendships and dancing. The Knights of Rhythm supplied the music for the night gay swing.

The neighboring Clubs were well represented with six from Magrath, two from Warner, two from Milk River, eighteen from Cardston, six from Lethbridge, six from Blairmore. Next month will be a very busy one for Lions in Southern Alberta. Lethbridge Charter night is February 2nd. Cardston's February 21st, Magrath's early in February and the big annual Cabinet Meeting for District 37 is next Saturday, January 20th. The Lions from Raymond will be well represented with about ten visitors going down for the weekend. This is a highlight for both business and recreation. The Great Falls Club are great entertainers.

Mrs. Hippard is in Calgary visiting her uncle, Mr. Simpson who is a patient in a hospital there.

Women's Institute

The ladies of the Raymond Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Lamb. The President, Mrs. Frank Hall presided. After singing the song "Home Sweet Home", the Roll Call was answered by each lady telling the present they most enjoyed at Christmas.

The Secretary, Mrs. I. Kitchen, read a letter from the Alberta Women's Institute President, Mrs. A. B. McGorman, asking for flannellette or diaper cloth, and money to buy soap which is badly needed in Greece.

A lesson on 'Furniture Refinishing' was given by Mrs. McBride, Mrs. Swedish and Mrs. Christensen.

The door prize was donated by Mrs. Christensen and won by Mrs. Winkler. A comic reading was given by Mrs. Geneva Erickson, which was enjoyed very much. The Meeting adjourned and a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs. Winkler and Mrs. Lamb.

Our phone number is 24.

Comets Crash Cougars

In Cardston on Friday the Raymond High School Comets rolled to an impressive victory over the Cardston Cougars. It was their fourth win in as many starts this season. In the Southern "A" League. The Comets seem to have a powerful punch this year and should go far in basketball.

Lloyd Ralph paced the Comets to a 79-48 victory with 16 points. Ben Laidlaw was high man for the night scoring 26 of the Cougars 48 points. The game was fast and the Comets played very good basketball. They meet Magrath Zeniths Friday next in the Opera House—the game should be very interesting.

Literary Ladies Entertain Partners

The Raymond Literary Club ladies entertained their partners at their Annual Party Monday evening, January 15th, in the Club Rooms at the Opera House.

A tasty hot supper was served; Mrs. Jack Evans and Mrs. Winston Shaw catering. Mrs. Phoebe Evans was Chairman of the Entertainment, assisted by Mrs. Edda Brandley and Mrs. Ruth Ackroyd.

A skit "The School Room" under the direction of Mrs. Geneva Erickson presented snappy song numbers which were heartily applauded. This skit featured Mary Court as the School Teacher with Grace Selman, Margaret Jacobs, Maxine Dahl, Robert Gemilich, Larry Harker and Kay Salmon as students. Mrs. Ethel Tolstrup accompanied at the piano.

Competitive table games were enjoyed, honors going to the honored guests. First prizes were won by Frank Taylor and Myron Holmes and second prizes went to J. H. Walker and Jim Harker. The prizes were beautiful figurines, the work of Mrs. Phoebe Evans.

A Sing-Song conducted by President J. H. Walker, accompanied by Mrs. Emma Dahl included old and new song hits, and the evenings entertainment concluded with "Auld Lang Syne".

Those present were Mesdames Lavern Anderson, Phoebe Evans, Phoebe Dahl, Luella Taylor, Edda Brandley, Emma Dahl, Ruth Ackroyd and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker, Mr. and Lyman Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Redd, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wing, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harker.

If you happen to see Ralph Walker and Harry Larson walking down the street pointing long fingers at each other arguing loudly—or Elizabeth Hamilton slapping her husband Myron sharply on the cheek—or Beth Walker singing Mammy songs—it's alright, they're not crazy. It's just "The Vigil".

To Leo Jessop

Dear Leo:

We just want to tell you that the big party is going ahead as planned.

And we want you to know that it will be a good party and a big party. Because Raymond people are a good people — a big people. They'll all be there.

They are all your friends, Leo — they are the friends of everyone in need of friendship and neighborliness and love — they are just that kind of people. We want you to know that, Leo.

We want you to know that everyone — the mothers in the homes — the children in the schools — business men — the men on the street — our native sons — and those foreign-born — they are all your neighbors, Leo, and your friends.

They have shown the warmth of their friendship and love by their generous response to your need.

You understand — up there — don't you Leo?

Goodbye — for now.

Your friends, with our love.

All the people of Raymond

The Friday Nite Club met at the home of Mrs. Fanny Litchfield with Mrs. Minnie Litchfield as co-hostess. The special guest, Mrs. V. Meeks, gave a very fine review of the book, "Father of The Bride". A delicious lunch was served.

The revised plans for the new High School have been completed and are now in the hands of the local School Board for approval. The plans have also been sent to the Department of Education in Edmonton who must give their approval before any further move can be made by our local authorities.

The monthly Joint Meeting of the Stake YWMA and YWMA was held on Monday at the Stake House. Lee Brewerton took charge of this meeting and details for Stake Leadership on January 29th, were discussed.

Roy Woolley, Stake Scout Master, requested more support in Scouting throughout the Stake. He expressed concern over the lack of interest in the Rally to be held in Lethbridge in February and wished all members of the Board to encourage the Wards to Organize the Scout Group Committees — these committees are like a School Board and as Roy put it, you would not ask a teacher to choose the School Board — the Board is to choose the teacher.

George Erickson gave a report on the Improvement Era sales, which showed all Wards lower than last year.

The general theme for the Leadership was to be "Reverence". All leaders were asked to stress this in their classes as there is a Church-wide program to improve the order in our meetings and recreation.

Mrs. Nadine Price, and her small son, of Taber is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Witbeck this week.

Many Pay Last Tribute To Rose Petrak

Paying their last respects to 17-year old Rose Petrak, relatives and many of her friends crowded the Second Ward Chapel to overflowing last Thursday to attend the funeral services conducted by Rev. J. Ward of Magrath.

Other speakers were Mrs. Florella Palmer who was Rose's teacher in the Bee Hive Mutual class and Lyman H. Jacobs who spoke highly of Rose who had been a good student, happy, carefree and of cheerful disposition, well loved by the community as well as her classmates.

Musical numbers were a vocal solo by Mrs. Evelyn Melchin, accompanied by Mrs. Emma Dahl. A ladies trio, Mrs. Gen Hawkins, Mrs. Evelyn Melchin and Mrs. Laura Watson, accompanied by Mrs. Dora Oler and a vocal solo by Peter Vanderhilt, accompanied by Mrs. J. Grant.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Gen Hawkins and accompanied by Mrs. Oler rendered two hymns.

Pallbearers were Tim Court, Reed Scoville, Bud Hudson, Arnold Hudson, Albert Clark and Bruce Fisher.

Interment was in the Temple Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Arthur Dahl Passes in Utah

Friends will be sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Arthur Dahl, a former resident of Raymond, who passed away January 14th, in St. George, Utah where she was visiting relatives. Funeral services will be held on Saturday in the Tabernacle in Cardston at 2:30 p.m.

Sacrament Meeting at the Second Ward Church took the form of a Farewell for Delbert Gough who left the following Wednesday to fill a mission in England. Delbert's father, Cliff Gough labored in this same field some twenty-seven years ago where he met his wife Gladys. The farewell talks of his parents harkened back to those long ago days and both reminisced about the persecution the missionaries endured at that time. They were glad that their son would find the people more receptive and in a friendlier mood. Delbert, in his talk, expressed gratitude to his parents, friends, teachers and all who have aided him in the past. Bishop Jensen's final words were encouraging to all the Ward members. Howard Melchin, a friend of the family, spoke of the Goughs' helpfulness as neighbors and of the sincerity of the young people today.

Music was supplied by the choir under the direction of Mrs. L. J. Hawkins, and special numbers by the Mona Palmer, Jan Turner Rita Walker trio.

The large crowd symbolized the love of the people and the support they wished to express to Deb. and his family.

Girls Hold Pantry Sale

Last Saturday, the Junior Gleaners and Gleaners of the Second Ward held a Pantry Sale, with proceeds to be presented to the Petrak family. Rose was a member of the Junior Gleaner Class and all of the children have been good attenders at M. I. A.

The people of Raymond co-operated very nicely, donating both cooking and money. Marva Nalder organized the Sale and supervised it. Fifty dollars was taken in and presented to the family on Tuesday. The class felt fully rewarded for their small efforts when the Petraks expressed their appreciation.

Mrs. Hamp Witbeck was hostess at a Rook Party at her home Wednesday afternoon, at which Mrs. Rulon Dahl took top honors and Mrs. Kinsey consolation. A very tasty lunch was served the guests.

Jacks Brought To Half-mast

In the Opera House last night, Wednesday January 17th, the Raymond Union Jacks suffered a beating at the hands of the Improving Lethbridge Green-Acres.

Also last night the RMS Helcats came within two points of downing the Cardston Shooting Stars. The local girls passed, cut, blocked and checked so successfully that Cardston barely came out on top. Agnes Davidson led the scorers on both sides with 17 points. Karen McLean and Florence Graham were next with 12 and 10 points respectively. The Helcats played outstanding ball but came out on the short end of a 40 to 38 score.

In the second game of the night, the Jacks were definitely outplayed by the Acres. It was, it seemed, an 'off night' for Raymond as they just couldn't get rolling although they held their own until half-time when the score was 33 to 31 for Lethbridge. Big Al Greenway snagged practically every rebound off both ends and was certainly a major factor in Lethbridge's victory. Hicken seemed to be Raymond's outstanding man of the evening, scoring 12 points. Jack Lilja and Dave Fernandez topped the Acres' score sheet with 18 points each.

The game was well looked after by two whistle blowers from Cardston—Steed and Caldwell—who did an excellent job all night. Only once were they booed and then it was very uncalled for and unsportsman-like on the part of the Raymond fans.

The final score of the game was Lethbridge 66, Raymond 49.

Raymond — A. West 9; L. West 6; Zelhu 4; Rolfsen 2; Stevens 4; Mitchell 9; Nalder 2; Hicken 12; Attwood 1; McLean. Total—49.

Lethbridge — Marcus 11; Lilja 18; Fernandez 18; Hansen 7; Greenway 12; Proctor. Total—66.

Just Penning Thanks (Margaret Huszar)

The past week has not been a very happy one. The death of Leo Jessop in itself was not too great a shock, but the passing of Rose Petrak was. It makes stop and think. It makes us realize how delicate life really is. I believe that I am speaking for the whole School when I say that we are filled with sincere sorrow at the passing of Leo and Rose.

It seems that the holidays took their toll. Everyone around school is too busy, too lazy, or just too, to do anything. There are the usual ball-games which practically nobody attends. There is also the usual agonized plea of the Hi-Times staff for room reports, and of course, there is that inevitable, never-ending homework.

There is also the mumps scare. Three quarters of the students want 'em and can't get 'em; one quarter has had them or is having them. Lucky kids.

Some little birdie tells me that Grade 12 is putting on a Literary Friday. It should create some interest.

This little incident is too juicy to pass by.

Mr. Jacobs in Social Studies 3. "Who invented the five-day work week, class?"

No answer from the class.

"Well, I'll tell you, Robinson Crusoe, he had everything done by Friday!"

Missionary Class Hold Gay Social

The Missionary Class of the Raymond Second Ward held a Social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brandley last Friday in honor of Delbert, Sham Stevens and Dale Hicken, three members of the class who are leaving for missions soon. Program and games under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Paxman and Rita Walker, were enjoyed by all. Each of the missionaries spoke briefly, and as an unexpected treat, Jan Heninger dropped in and gave us a report on her mission and her trip around the world.

Honored guests included the parents of the boys.

A hearty lunch was prepared and served to about forty people, under the supervision of Mrs. Ira Bourne. Parched corn, prepared by Mrs. Brandley was a novelty which all enjoyed. Many had never tasted this before. Mrs. Brandley explained that parched corn was often called 'Pioneer Nuts' as it was a favorite dish of our forefathers.

Mrs. Bond and her son Robert are in charge of this Missionary Class and they are rapidly increasing attendance and enthusiasm in the group.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson were hosts at a dinner party at their home Friday evening, with covers laid for twenty guests. After the delicious dinner a wonderful time was had playing competitive table games with Harry Fairbanks taking high score for the men and Ruth Salmon high score for the ladies.

A Farewell Party was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Layne Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Holmes.

A lovely and fitting poem entitled "Friendship" was read by the host, after which Ira McBride read the poem "So You Are Going To The Coast", also very appropriate. The remainder of the evening was spent playing Rook, followed by a very delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Layne were presented with a lovely linen tablecloth, a token of the friendship which had been enjoyed together.

Mr. and Mrs. Reithman and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fawns of Lethbridge were out of town guests.

Capitol Theatre News

One of Warner Bros. most entertaining pictures of the season is now playing at Brewerton's Capitol. It is the story of the life of that famous jockey from Cardston, George Woolf, who up until his untimely death held the record for winning jockeys. The picture stars Lon McCallister and Shirley Temple and is entitled "The Story of Seabiscuit". It is the years most colorful and absorbing drama, and is filmed in Technicolor, with scenes taken on the famous race track of Santa Anita.

Next week end, January 26th. and 27th. brings Bing Crosby in his newest screen triumph "Mrs. Music". It is one of his finest pictures and quite different from his past efforts. Bing's leading lady is that vivacious and charming Nancy Olsen. If you enjoy 'Bing' (and who doesn't?) plan now to see Mr. Music.

By the way folks, it won't be long before "Cheaper By The Dozen" arrives, the picture that has broken all records wherever it has been shown.

The Glee-ette Club met at the home of Mrs. Beth Walker Monday evening for their regular practice. Mrs. Laura Hirsche was assistant hostess.

Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Erickson each conducted during a portion of the evening. Two new members were voted in this night, Mrs. Virginia Baker and Mrs. Fontella Boehme.

A very tasty lunch was served by the hostesses.

A cottage Meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Steels this week with Willard Paxman in charge. Following Jim Hudson's very interesting talk, a delicious lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brewerton recently had as their guests for dinner at the Marquis, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Layne and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Erickson and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jensen of Lethbridge. After the enjoyable dinner, they spent the afternoon visiting at the Earnest Jensen home.

Last Friday night, January 12th, was election night for the Raymond Young Married People's Club held at the Buddhist Church. Gus Moriyama was elected President; Jack Nishiyama Vice President; Toru Iwassa, Secretary Treasurer. It has been decided to hold meetings twice a month at a members home.

The Book Lovers' Score met at the home of Mrs. Jane Brewerton with twenty members and a special guest, Mary Rasmussen, present. The Vice-President, Kay Swedish was in charge of the meeting and after the business was discussed Rojana Bingham capably reviewed the book, "The Life of Stalin". A very tasty lunch completed the afternoon meeting.

A Cottage Meeting was held at the Welling home of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Stringham on Monday night, sponsored by the Welling Ward, Teaching group. J. D. Attwood conducted the program which included talks by Bishop Floyd Wilde and Pres. L. L. Palmer, two solos by Mona Palmer and the Relief Society message by Mrs. Douglas Paxman.

When Desmond George reported for work at the local Bank of Montreal recently he was forging another link in the chain that binds B of M service here to the George family. Shortly after the local branch was established, Harry George, Desmond's father, started a banking career that has led him to the managership of the Bank at Grande Prairie, Alberta.

The George family have all had their turn at the banking business, Leigh, with whom "Ye Ed" (OK boys?) went to school in Magrath, is now a banker of six years experience in Regina. Barbara had a go at it in the Main Office of the B of M in Winnipeg, and Desmond, the youngest at 22, started a short time ago at the Bank in Forestburg, Alberta.

Welcome to town Desmond.

Frank Taylor, Jos. McLean, Jack Kenney and Gerald Snow returned recently from a nine-day tour of Sugar Factories in the States. Their tour took them to Shelly, Idaho, where they saw a Potatoe Grading Station and Fertilizer Plant; Twin Falls and Mampa Idaho; Nyssa, Oregon and Toppenish, Washington. Mr. Taylor and Mr. Snow were particularly interested in the agricultural and receiving departments while the other men's interest centered on factory operation.

While at Nampa they were guests at the Factory Staff House where they met Robert Boyd and Peter Cherniasky, two officials of the Rogers Co. in Vancouver. An excellent reception was received at all stops on their trip.

Mr. Taylor says that all the factories they visited have gone in for increasing production, and quoted some figures. The Amalgamated Sugar Corporation's plants at Nampa and Nyssa processed 1,050,000 tons of beets. The Nyssa factory cut 3,500 tons of beets in one day as compared to 5,200 tons for the three Alberta plants. The Toppenish factory's run will last until early March when it will have processed 518,000 tons. The average yield in that area is about 22 tons per acre.

The weather was very favorable for the trip but en route home via the Crows Nest Pass they found snow very plentiful in B. C.

Friday evening Mrs. Vanda Grey was hostess to a number of friends at a delicious turkey dinner. While the guests were assembling, Janet Heninger told of her very interesting trip home; and after dinner an enjoyable time was had playing Rook with Dot. Witbeck taking high score and Rose Bingham consolation.

After a three-day stay in the local hospital, Percy Cope is back in his familiar background at the Drug Store and is feeling fine.

WHAT IS Personal Planning?

Personal Planning is more than mere budgeting... that, by itself, is dull.

Personal Planning is a positive financial program for successful individual and family living—a program for progressive and provident people—people who have ideas for their future and want to make them real.

That's why Personal Planning is so different. It is a plan that faces the fact that all of us must live on what we have—not on what we wish for. It also faces the fact that a budget-plan should never choke the fun out of life. It shows you how to put yourself on your own payroll, as well as the butcher, the baker and candlestick-maker. It shows you how to build for tomorrow, while you enjoy today. Yes, and it shows you how to get the most out of life with what you earn.

In Personal Planning, the important thing is: IT'S NOT HOW MUCH YOUR INCOME IS... IT'S HOW YOU USE IT.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT Personal Planning

Personal Planning was introduced on a test basis to visitors at the Canadian National Exhibition last autumn. Thousands of people responded to our invitation and asked for copies of "Personal Planning for Successful Home-makers."

"Up-to-date and practical for present living conditions," is what one visitor wrote us after reading the booklet.

"I needed this advice very badly," wrote another, "and you have already helped to straighten out a quarter of our personal problems."

"Excellent pamphlet," said a third. "My budget-plan will be organized within a month."

These comments, and many more like them, are in the Bank's files at the Head Office in Montreal.

WORKING WITH CANADIANS IN EVERY WALK OF LIFE SINCE 1817

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Adams have been visiting in Moose Jaw the past week at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Adams.

The home of Mrs. Fontella Hawkins was the scene of gay festivities on Saturday when her four sons, their wives and children, gathered to partake of a sumptuous turkey dinner with all the trimmings.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Heninger, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Peterson of Welling, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Nalder, Jim and Janet Heninger, Mrs. Wilson Rolfsen and Mrs. Pearl Heninger of Magrath were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Heninger in Lethbridge for a delicious turkey dinner and a very enjoyable visit.

Mrs. May Meeks is a patient in the St. Michaels Hospital and Mrs. Parley Meldrum is at the Galt.

James Heninger visited Missionary friends in Cardston on Wednesday night.

Wednesday evening Mrs. Fanny Litchfield was hostess at a gay evening of Rook when she honored two more missionaries, David Dahl who is to leave shortly and Jim Hudson who recently returned. Other guests were Barbara Fairbanks, Gertrude Anderson, Edith Woolley and Mr. and Mrs. Hudson. A delicious lunch was served.

The rinks skipped by Andy Heggie, Lincoln Wood, Mel Depew and Harvey Powmen are participating in the Winter Bouspiel this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Palmer were Cardston visitors on Wednesday where they visited Dr. and Mrs. Roy Spackman. They also attended a session at the Temple.

Attend the Leo Jessop Benefit Dance

Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Snow and Mrs. T. T. Mendenhall motored to Great Falls with their sons, Gordon Snow and Loren Mendenhall, as well as Allan VanOrman of Cardston.

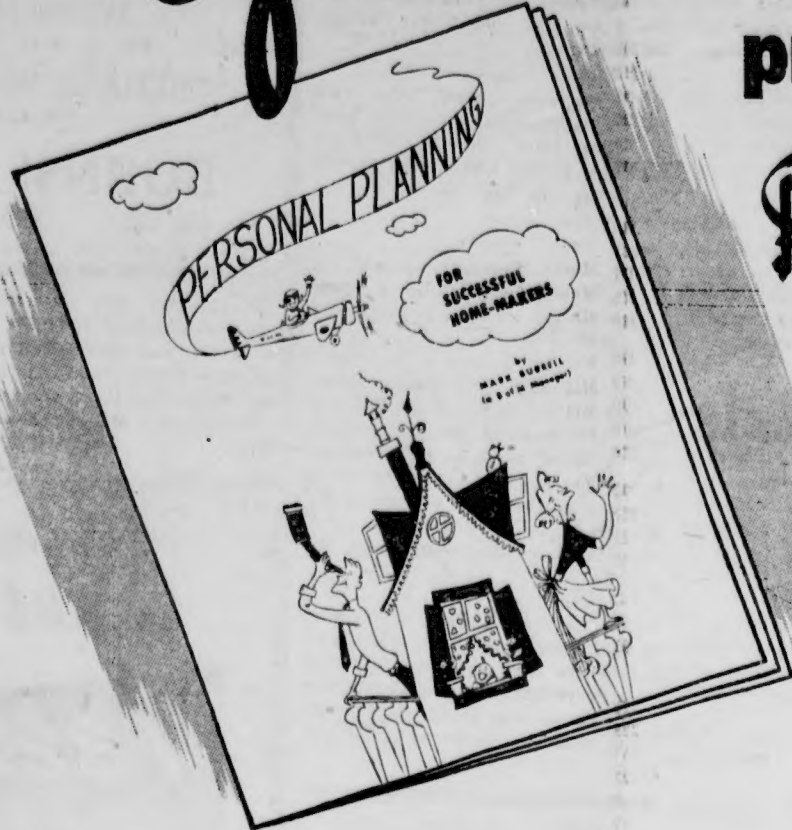

From Great Falls the boys will travel by train to Salt Lake where they will enter the Mission Home for a short while and then proceed to their fields of labor; Gordon to Northern California and Loren and Allan to Eastern Canada.

The First Ward Relief Society work day meeting this week was also a Farewell Party for Mrs. Gil Evans whose home is now in the Second Ward. A comic reading by Mrs. Rhea Jensen was thoroughly enjoyed, followed by a very interesting talk by Mrs. Phoebe Evans on her recent trip through the United States. Mrs. Godfrey Holmes gave a short talk and presented Mrs. Evans with the book, "How To Pray and Stay Awake". The Relief Society ladies also completed two quilts during this meeting. A very tasty lunch was served.

Mrs. Joe Thompson was hostess Tuesday evening at the regular Primary Officers and Teachers Meeting of the Second Ward. Alice Thompson capably presented the Teacher Training Lesson after which plans were discussed for Primary Conference. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Thompson and assistant hostess Evelyn Robinson.
